The Declaration of Independence is generally regarded as one of the most famous documents in the history of the world. On June 10, 1776, the Continental Congress appointed a committee, consisting of Thomas Jefferson, Benjamin Franklin, John Adams, Roger Sherman and Robert R. Livingston to draft a Declaration of Independence.

Jefferson wrote out a rough draft of the Declaration, which was carefully revised by the committee and presented to Congress for adoption. After some further slight revisions by that body, it was adopted on July 4, 1776, at Philadelphia.

The parchment with the original signatures was deposited with the Department of State when the government was organized in 1789.

The original Declaration of Independence was transferred from the Department of State by direction of the late President Warren G. Harding to the Library of Congress. The Declaration was moved from the Library of Congress in 1952 at the direction of Congress and transferred to the National Archives Building where it rests today.

THE DECLARATION OF INDEPENDENCE

MADE BY THE ORIGINAL THIRTEEN STATES
IN CONGRESS AT PHILADELPHIA

UNANIMOUSLY ADOPTED JULY 4, 1776

When, in the course of human events, it becomes necessary for one people to dissolve the political bands which have connected them with another, and to assume, among the powers of the earth, the separate and equal station to which the laws of nature and of nature's God entitle them, a decent respect to the opinions of mankind requires that they should declare the causes which impel them to the separation.

We hold these truths to be self-evident, that all men are created equal, that they are endowed, by their Creator, with certain unalienable rights, that among these are life, liberty, and the pursuit of happiness. That to secure these rights, governments are instituted among men, deriving their just powers from the consent of the governed, that whenever any form of government becomes destructive of these ends, it is the right of the people to alter or to abolish it, and institute new government, laying its foundation on such principles, and organizing its powers in such form as to them shall seem most likely to effect their safety and happiness. Prudence, indeed, will dictate that governments long established, should not be changed for light and transient causes; and accordingly all experience hath shown that mankind are more disposed to suffer, while evils are sufferable, than to right themselves by abolishing the forms to which they are accustomed. But when a long train of abuses and usurpations, pursuing invariably the same object, evinces a design to reduce them under absolute despotism, it is their right, it is their duty, to throw off such government, and to provide new guards for their future security. Such has been the patient sufferance of these Colonies, and such is now the necessity which constrains them to alter their former systems of government. The history of the present King of Great Britain is a history of repeated injuries and usurpations, all having in direct object the establishment of an absolute tyranny over these States. To prove this, let facts be submitted to a candid world.

He has refused his assent to laws, the most wholesome and necessary for the public good.

He has forbidden his governors to pass laws of immediate and pressing importance, unless suspended in their operation till his assent should be obtained; and when so suspended, he has utterly neglected to attend to them.

He has refused to pass other laws for the accommodation of large districts of people, unless those people should relinquish the right of representation in the legislature, a right inestimable to them, and formidable to tyrants only.

He has called together legislative bodies at places unusual, uncomfortable, and distant from the depository of their public records, for the sole purpose of fatiguing them into compliance with his measures.

He has dissolved representative houses repeatedly, for opposing with manly firmness his invasions on the rights of the people.

He has refused for a long time, after such dissolutions, to cause others to be elected, whereby the legislative powers, incapable of annihilation, have returned to the people at large for their exercise; the State remaining, in the meantime, exposed to all the dangers of invasion from without, and convulsions within.

He has endeavored to prevent the population of these States; for that purpose obstructing the laws for naturalization of foreigners; refusing to pass others to encourage their migrations hither; and raising the conditions of new appropriations of lands.

He has obstructed the administration of justice by refusing his assent to laws for establishing judiciary powers.

He has made judges dependent on his will alone, for the tenure of their offices, and the amount and payment of their salaries.

He has erected a multitude of new offices, and sent hither swarms of officers to harass our people, and eat out their substance.

He has kept among us, in times of peace, standing armies, without the consent of our legislatures.

He has affected to render the military independent of and superior to the civil power.

He has combined with others to subject us to a jurisdiction foreign to our constitution and unacknowledged by our laws; giving his assent to their acts of pretended legislation:

For quartering large bodies of armed troops among us:

For protecting them, by a mock trial, from punishment for any murders which they should commit on the inhabitants of these States:

For cutting off our trade with all parts of the world:

For imposing taxes on us without our consent:

For depriving us, in many cases, of the benefits of trial by jury:

For transporting us beyond seas to be tried for pretended offenses:

For abolishing the free system of English laws in a neighboring province, establishing therein an arbitrary government, and enlarging its boundaries, so as to render it at once an example and fit instrument for introducing the same absolute rule into these colonies:

For taking away our charters, abolishing our most valuable laws, and altering fundamentally the forms of our governments:

For suspending our own legislatures, and declaring themselves invested with power to legislate for us in all cases whatsoever.

He has abdicated government here, by declaring us out of his protection, and waging war against us.

He has plundered our seas, ravaged our coasts, burnt our towns, and destroyed the lives of our people.

He is, at this time, transporting large armies of foreign mercenaries to complete the works of death, desolation, and tyranny, already begun, with circumstances of cruelty and perfidy, scarcely paralleled in the most barbarous ages, and totally unworthy the head of a civilized nation.

He has constrained our fellow citizens, taken captive on the high seas, to bear arms against their country, to become the executioners of their friends and brethren, or to fall themselves by their hands.

He has excited domestic insurrections amongst us, and has endeavored to bring on the inhabitants of our frontiers, the merciless Indian savages, whose known rule of warfare is an undistinguished destruction of all ages, sexes, and conditions.

In every stage of these oppressions we have petitioned for redress in the most humble terms: our repeated petitions have been answered only by repeated injury. A prince whose character is thus marked by every act which may define a tyrant, is unfit to be the ruler of a free people.

Nor have we been wanting in attentions to our British brethren. We have warned them, from time to time, of attempts by their legislature to extend an unwarrantable jurisdiction over us. We have reminded them of the circumstances of our emigration and settlement here. We have appealed to their native justice and magnanimity, and we have conjured them by the ties of our common kindred to disavow these usurpations, which would inevitably interrupt our connections and correspondence. They too have been deaf to the voice of justice and of consanguinity. We must, therefore, acquiesce in the necessity which denounces our separation, and hold them, as we hold the rest of mankind, enemies in war, in peace friends.

We, therefore, the Representatives of the United States of America, in General Congress assembled, appealing to the Supreme Judge of the world for the rectitude of our intentions, do in the name, and by authority of the good people of these Colonies, solemnly publish and declare, That these United Colonies, are, and of right ought to be, free and independent States; that they are absolved from all allegiance to the British crown, and that all political connexion between them and the State of Great Britain, is, and ought to be, totally dissolved; and that as free and independent States, they have full power to levy war, conclude peace, contract alliances, establish commerce, and to do all other acts and things which independent States, may of right do. And for the support of this declaration, with a firm reliance on the protection of Divine Providence we mutually pledge to each other our lives, our fortunes, and our sacred honour.

The United States Constitution is the oldest federal constitution in existence. It was so well framed that it has served as the basis for this government for a century and a half. Only once has it been seriously endangered, this being during the Civil War. Many of its principles have been adopted by other countries.

The Constitution was the outgrowth of a convention of delegates from the different states that met in Philadelphia in May, 1787, Rhode Island not being represented. George Washington presided over the convention, which lasted from May to September.

The Constitution was then submitted to the then existing states for ratification, with a provision that it should become effective when ratified by nine states. New Hampshire was the ninth state to ratify, June 21, 1788, and the Constitution went into effect in 1789.

The states ratified the Constitution in the following order: Delaware, Dec. 7; Pennsylvania, Dec. 12, and New Jersey, Dec. 18, 1787; Georgia, Jan. 2; Connecticut, Jan. 9; Massachusetts, Feb. 6; Maryland, Apr. 28; South Carolina, May 23; New Hampshire, June 21; Virginia, June 26, and New York, July 26, 1788; North Carolina, Nov. 21, 1789, and Rhode Island, May 29, 1790.

PART FIRST

BILL OF RIGHTS

Article 1st. [Equality of Men; Origin and Object of Government.] All men are born equally free and independent: Therefore, all government, of right, originates from the people, is founded in consent, and instituted for the general good.

Annotation — 53 NH 9, 65 NH 113, 86 NH 597, 89 NH 428, 96 NH 423, 102 NH 215.

[Art.] 2d. [Natural Rights.] All men have certain natural, essential, and inherent rights — among which are, the enjoying and defending life and liberty; acquiring, possessing, and protecting, property; and, in a word, of seeking and obtaining happiness.

NOTE. — The abbreviation “Art” was first inserted in this and following articles of the Bill of Rights in General Statutes, 1867.

Annotation — 53 NH 9, 53 NH 398, 54 NH 117, 54 NH 590, 60 NH 219, 67 NH 1, 71 NH 552, 72 NH 95, 73 NH 31, 75 NH 27, 77 NH 581, 87 NH 64, 87 NH 68, 94 NH 148, 102 NH 236.

[Art.] 3d. [Society, its Organization and Purposes.] When men enter into a state of society, they surrender up some of their natural rights to that society, in order to ensure the protection of others; and, without such an equivalent, the surrender is void.

Annotation — 53 NH 9, 60 NH 219, 71 NH 552, 89 NH 54, 97 NH 91.

[Art.] 4th. [Rights of Conscience Unalienable.] Among the natural rights, some are, in their very nature unalienable, because no equivalent can be given or received for them. Of this kind are the Rights of Conscience.

Annotation — 53 NH 9, 59 NH 219, 89 NH 54, 100 NH 436.

[Art.] 5th. [Religious Freedom Recognized.] Every individual has a natural and unalienable right to worship God according to the dictates of his own conscience, and reason; and no subject shall be hurt, molested, or restrained, in his person, liberty, or estate, for worshipping God in the manner and season most agreeable to the dictates of his own conscience; or for his religious profession, sentiments, or persuasion; provided he doth not disturb the public peace or disturb others in their religious worship.

Annotation — 53 NH 9, 58 NH 240, 59 NH 219, 64 NH 48, 68 NH 380, 76 NH 393, 89 NH 54, 91 NH 137, 97 NH 352, 99 NH 519, 100 NH 436.

[Art.] 6th. [Public Worship of the Deity to be Encouraged; Religious Instruction and Tolerance.] As morality and piety, rightly grounded on evangelical principles, will give the best and greatest security to government, and will lay, in the hearts of men, the strongest obligations to due subjection; and as the knowledge of these is most likely to be propagated through a society, by the institution of the public worship of the Deity, and of public instruction in morality and religion; therefore, to promote these important purposes, the people of this state have a right to empower, and do hereby fully empower, the legislature, to authorize, from time to time, the several towns, parishes, bodies corporate, or religious societies, within this state, to make adequate provision, at their own expense, for the support and maintenance of public Protestant teachers of piety, religion, and morality:

Provided notwithstanding, that the several towns, parishes, bodies corporate, or religious societies, shall, at all times, have the exclusive right of electing their own public teachers, and of contracting with them for their support and maintenance. And no person, of any one particular religious sect or denomination, shall ever be compelled to pay towards the support of the teacher or teachers of another persuasion, sect, or denomination.

And every denomination of Christians, demeaning themselves quietly, and as good subjects of the state, shall be equally under the protection of the law: And no subordination of any one sect or denomination to another, shall ever be established by law.

And nothing herein shall be understood to affect any former contracts made for the support of the ministry; but all such contracts shall remain, and be in the same state as if this constitution had not been made.

Annotation — 2 NH 20, 53 NH 9, 56 NH 508, 58 NH 170, 66 NH 207, 75 NH 420, 75 NH 560, 76 NH 393, 88 NH 394, 93 NH 301, 99 NH 519.

[Art.] 7th. [State Sovereignty.] The people of this state have the sole and exclusive right of governing themselves as a free, sovereign, and independent state; and do, and forever hereafter shall, exercise and enjoy every power, jurisdiction, and right, pertaining thereto, which is not, or may not hereafter be, by them expressly delegated to the United States of America in congress assembled.

Annotation — 66 NH 362, 90 NH 472.

[Art.] 8th. [Accountability of Magistrates and Officers.] All power residing originally in, and being derived from, the people, all the magistrates and officers of government are their substitutes and agents, and at all times accountable to them.

Annotation — 66 NH 362, 67 NH 1, 90 NH 472.

[Art.] 9th. [No Hereditary Office or Place.] No office or place, whatsoever, in government, shall be hereditary — the abilities and integrity requisite in all, not being transmissible to posterity or relations.

[Art.] 10th. [Right of Revolution.] Government being instituted for the common benefit, protection, and security, of the whole community, and not for the private interest or emolument of any one man, family, or class of men; therefore, whenever the ends of government are perverted, and public liberty manifestly endangered, and all other means of redress are ineffectual, the people may, and of right ought to reform the old, or establish a new government. The doctrine of nonresistance against arbitrary power, and oppression, is absurd, slavish, and destructive of the good and happiness of mankind.

Annotation — 52 NH 581, 60 NH 219, 65 NH 113, 86 NH 597, 88 NH 484, 89 NH 314, 90 NH 472, 99 NH 33, 101 NH 527.

[Art.] 11th. [Elections and Elective Franchise.] All elections ought to be free, and every inhabitant of the state, having the proper qualifications, has equal right to elect, and be elected, into office; but no person shall have the right to vote or be eligible to office under the constitution of this state who shall not be able to read the constitution in the English language and to write; provided, however, that this provision shall not apply to any person prevented by a physical disability from complying with its requisitions, nor to any person who now has the right to vote, nor to any person who shall be sixty years of age or upwards on the first day of January, A.D. 1904; and provided further that no person shall have the right to vote, or be eligible to office under the constitution of this state who shall have been convicted of treason, bribery, or any wilful violation of the election laws of this state, or of the United States; but the supreme court may, on notice to the attorney-general restore the privileges of an elector to any person who may have forfeited them by conviction of such offenses. The general court shall have power to provide by law for voting by qualified voters who at the time of biennial or state elections, or of the primary elections therefor, or of city elections are absent from the city or town of which they are inhabitants, or who by reason of physical disability are unable to vote in person, in the choice of any officer or officers to be elected or upon any question submitted at such election.

NOTE. — First proviso inserted, 1903; second proviso inserted 1912. The last sentence was added in 1942 and amended in 1956.

Annotation — 83 NH 589, 97 NH 452, 99 NH 540, 101 NH 420, 101 NH 429, 104 NH 100, 104 NH 108.

[Art.] 12th. [Protection and Taxation Reciprocal.] Every member of the community has a right to be protected by it, in the enjoyment of his life, liberty, and property; he is therefore bound to contribute his share in the expense of such protection, and to yield his personal service when necessary. But no part of a man's property shall be taken from him, or applied to public uses, without his own consent, or that of the representative body of the people. Nor are the inhabitants of this state controllable by any other laws than those to which they, or their representative body, have given their consent.

NOTE. — Amended 1964.

Annotation — Smith NH 1.

[Art.] 14th. [Legal Remedies to be Free, Complete, and Prompt.] Every subject of this state is entitled to a certain remedy, by having recourse to the laws, for all injuries he may receive in his person, property, or character; to obtain right and justice freely, without being obliged to purchase it; completely, and without any denial; promptly, and without delay; conformably to the laws.

[Right of Accused.] No subject shall be held to answer for any crime, or offense, until the same is fully and plainly, substantially and formally, described to him; or be compelled to accuse or furnish evidence against himself. And every subject shall have a right to produce all proofs that may be favorable to himself; to meet the witnesses against him face to face, and to be fully heard in his defense, by himself, and counsel. And no subject shall be arrested, imprisoned, despoiled, or deprived of his property, immunities, or privileges, put out of the protection of the law, exiled or deprived of his life, liberty, or estate, but by the judgment of his peers, or the law of the land.

[Art.] 16th. [Former Jeopardy; Jury Trial in Capital Cases.] No subject shall be liable to be tried, after an acquittal, for the same crime or offense. Nor shall the legislature make any law that shall subject any person to a capital punishment, (excepting for the government of the army and navy, and the militia in actual service) without trial by jury.

Annotation — 67 NH 274, 80 NH 394, 98 NH 149, 98 NH 382, 103 NH 32.

[Art.] 17th. [Venue of Criminal Prosecutions.] In criminal prosecutions, the trial of facts, in the vicinity where they happened, is so essential to the security of the life, liberty, and estate, of the citizen, that no crime or offense ought to be tried in any other county than that in which it is committed; — except in cases of general insurrection in any particular county, when it shall appear to the judges of the superior court, that an impartial trial cannot be had in the county where the offense may be committed, and upon their report, the legislature shall think proper to direct the trial in the nearest county in which an impartial trial can be obtained.

NOTE. — “Legislature” was substituted for “assembly,” 1793.

Annotation — 20 NH 250, 56 NH 175, 61 NH 423, 66 NH 488, 77 NH 287.

[Art.] 18th. [Penalties to be Proportioned to Offenses; True Design of Punishment.] All penalties ought to be proportioned to the nature of the offense. No wise legislature will affix the same punishment to the crimes of theft, forgery, and the like, which they do to those of murder and treason. Where the same undistinguishing severity is exerted against all offenses, the people are led to forget the real distinction in the crimes themselves, and to commit the most flagrant with as little compunction as they do the lightest offenses. For the same reason a multitude of sanguinary laws is both impolitic and unjust.

The true design of all punishments being to reform, not to exterminate mankind.

NOTE. — The words “those of” following the word “do” in the third sentence, stricken out, 1793.

The word “offenses” in the third sentence was substituted for “dye,” 1793.
Annotation — 80 NH 1.

[Art.] 19th. [Searches and Seizures Regulated.] Every subject hath a right to be secure from all unreasonable searches and seizures of his person, his houses, his papers, and all his possessions. Therefore, all warrants to search suspected places, or arrest a person for examination or trial in prosecutions for criminal matters, are contrary to this right, if the cause or foundation of them be not previously supported by oath or affirmation; and if the order, in a warrant to a civil officer, to make search in suspected places, or to arrest one or more suspected persons or to seize their property, be not accompanied with a special designation of the persons or objects of search, arrest, or seizure; and no warrant ought to be issued; but in cases, and with the formalities, prescribed by law.

[Art.] 20th. [Jury Trial in Civil Causes.] In all controversies concerning property — and in all suits between two or more persons, except in cases in which it has been heretofore otherwise used and practiced, and except in cases in which the value in controversy does not exceed five hundred dollars, and title of real estate is not concerned the parties have a right to a trial by jury and this method of procedure shall be held sacred, unless, in cases arising on the high seas and such as relates to mariners’ wages the legislature shall think it necessary hereafter to alter it.

[Art.] 21st. [Jurors; Compensation.] In order to reap the fullest advantage of the inestimable privilege of the trial by jury, great care ought to be taken, that none but qualified persons should be appointed to serve; and such ought to be fully compensated for their travel, time, and attendance.

NOTE. — The word “be”, in the phrase “be fully compensated,” was not in the engrossed copy of 1793.

Annotation — 80 NH 319.

[Art.] 22d. [Liberty of the Press.] The liberty of the press is essential to the security of freedom in a state: It ought, therefore, to be inviolably preserved.

Annotation — 91 NH 137, 94 NH 148, 102 NH 75.

[Art.] 23d. [Retrospective Laws Prohibited.] Retrospective laws are highly injurious, oppressive, and unjust. No such laws, therefore, should be made, either for the decision of civil causes, or the punishment of offenses.

NOTE. — Some printings of the Constitution have failed to substitute the word “governor” for “president” in sections 73 and 74, but there is evidence that the substitution was intended by the constitutional convention of 1791-1792, and by the people. See 10 State Papers, 143.

A BRIEF HISTORY OF NEW HAMPSHIRE

Early historians record that in 1623, under the authority of an English land-grant, Captain John Mason, in conjunction with several others, sent David Thomson, a Scotchman, and Edward and Thomas Hilton, fish-merchants of London, with a number of other people in two divisions to establish a fishing colony in what is now New Hampshire, at the mouth of the Piscataqua River.

One of these divisions, under Thomson, settled near the river's mouth at a place they called Little Harbor or "Pannaway," now the town of Rye, where they erected salt-drying fish racks and a "factory" or stone house. The other division under the Hilton brothers set up their fishing stages on a neck of land eight miles above, which they called Northam, afterwards named Dover.

Nine years before that Captain John Smith of England and later of Virginia, sailing along the New England coast and inspired by the charm of our summer shores and the solitude of our country-sides, wrote back to his countrymen that:

"Here should be no landlords to rack us with high rents, or extorted fines to consume us. Here every man may be a master of his own labor and land in a short time. The sea there is the strangest pond I ever saw. What sport doth yield a more pleasant content and less hurt or charge than angling with a hook, and crossing the sweet air from isle to isle over the silent streams of a calm sea?"

Thus the settlement of New Hampshire did not happen because those who came here were persecuted out of England. The occasion, which is one of the great events in the annals of the English people, was one planned with much care and earnestness by the English crown and the English parliament. Here James the first began a colonization project which not only provided ships and provisions, but free land bestowed with but one important condition, that it remain always subject to English sovereignty.

So it remained until the "War of the Revolution." Smith first named it "North Virginia" but King James later revised this into "New England." To the map was added the name Portsmouth, taken from the English town where Captain John Mason was commander of the fort, and the name New Hampshire is that of his own English county of Hampshire.

Captain Mason died in 1635, just before his proposed trip to the new country which he never saw. He had invested more than twenty-two thousand pounds in clearing the land, building houses, and preparing for its defense, — a considerable fortune for those days. By then Dover and Portsmouth had expanded into Hampton and Exeter, and its income from fishing was increased by that from trade in furs and timber.

Taking the idea from the English government, a community of "towns" was erected, and this became a "royal province" in 1679 with John Cutt as president, with a population intended to be as nearly like England as it could be. The "royal province" continued until 1698 when it came under the jurisdiction of Massachusetts with Joseph Dudley as Governor. Thus it continued until 1741.

During that time England's throne had been ruled by William and Mary, Queen Anne, and George I, and New Hampshire was administered by no less than eight lieutenant governors. There had been much unrest in England and as a result, to New Hampshire's advantage, the Scotch settlers of Londonderry in Ireland had in 1719 sent many of their people here to form a "Scotch" colony in the new place they would call our own Londonderry.

Under King George II New Hampshire returned to its provincial status with a governor of its own, Benning Wentworth, who was its chief magistrate from 1741 to 1766.

During the first two decades of Governor Wentworth's term New Hampshire had been beset with Indian troubles. With little aid from England, then at war with its old-time enemy, France, the colonists undertook the sieges of Louisbourg, and helped to reduce Crown Point, and in the conquest of Canada. By the time of the signing of the Peace of Paris in 1762, and the end of the Indian fighting under the Rogers Rangers, the entire north country of New Hampshire was ready to be explored, surveyed, and populated.

Governor Wentworth who, as if in anticipation of this opportunity, seems to have been well prepared for it, had arranged the purchase for the sum of fifteen hundred pounds of the unauthenticated claims of Robert Mason, heir of Captain John Mason. This was done through a group of twelve influential citizens who called themselves the "Masonian Proprietors." Having done this, the governor kept the land "within the province."

Governor Wentworth, with all or most of the Masonian Proprietors as his councilors, then proceeded to grant towns to prospective settlers as equally as possible. In addition to the thirty-eight towns already granted, more than a hundred others followed after the year 1761. These towns contained lots available to more than thirty thousand families, many from the older towns in southern New Hampshire and Massachusetts, but many from other neighboring states. Some of these towns were located in Vermont, to be released later by a court order, which made the western shore of the Connecticut River the state boundary line.

While the new towns were occasionally given the names of the leading grantees, not a few of them bore the historic names of English royalty, frequently those of friends and relatives of Governor Wentworth and his own royal family, the Rockinghams, in England. Many of the beneficiaries were soldiers who had fought in the Indian wars, while a few were of Dutch origin, such as might settle from New York in New Hampshire.

The terms of the grants were simple. The Proprietors could convey only the soil, while the political rights and powers of government came from the province. Provision was made that no land should be subject to taxation or assessment until improved by those holding the titles. Rights were reserved for land for roads, churches and schools, to be built within a definite period of time, for the use of ministers and in many cases for mill-rights. Fees were nominal, often only a shilling or an ear of corn a year. All tall pines should be saved for the King's navy.

Benning Wentworth died in 1770. He was succeeded by his nephew who later became Sir John Wentworth, the last of the royal governors. He is perhaps best known because of his purchase of a thirty-six mile tract of land on the shore of Lake Winnepesaukee where he established an estate known as Kingswood. It afterward became Wolfeborough.

Governor Sir John Wentworth's beneficial acts to the state included the building of roads, including one from Portsmouth to Kingswood; publishing the first accurate state map; organizing the State militia, a member of which was Major Benjamin Thompson of Concord who afterward became known as Count Rumford; his help in founding Dartmouth College; and the building of Wentworth House, now owned by the State. Loyal to the English crown, he embarked for Nova Scotia at the beginning of the Revolution, there to become its Lieutenant-governor until his death in 1820.

A pre-Revolution event occurring in New Hampshire was the removal in 1774, by a small party of patriots at New Castle, of the powder and guns at Fort William and Mary. Other Revolutionary events included New Hampshire's participation in the Battle of Bunker Hill at which nearly all the troops doing the actual fighting were said to have been from this State; the signing of the Declaration of Independence by New Hampshire's Josiah Bartlett, Matthew Thornton, and William Whipple; General John Stark's victory at the Battle of Bennington; and the success of Captain John Paul Jones at sea.

Just as it was the first to declare its independence and adopt its own constitution, New Hampshire was the ninth and deciding state in accepting the National Constitution as that of a republic, never to be known under any other form of government. New Hampshire's John Langdon was the first acting vice-president of the United States, and was President of the Senate when Washington was elected first president.

Many events have helped to individualize New Hampshire's unique history as the decades have followed each other down to the present time. Both Washington and Lafayette passed within our borders. Meshech Weare was elected the first state "president." Morey's Connecticut River steam-boat preceded Fulton's by seventeen years. An American President, Franklin Pierce, and a Vice-president, Henry Wilson, were elected, both from New Hampshire. Daniel Webster won his famous Dartmouth College case before the Supreme Court. The first American public library was established at Peterborough. The world-recognized "Concord Coach" was made here, as was America's first cog-railroad to Mount Washington dating 1869.

Statesmen, educators, inventors, preachers, scientists, explorers, authors, industrialists, engineers, lawyers, diplomats, are all arrayed in the long line of notables New Hampshire claims as coming from her soil.

GEOGRAPHICAL LOCATION

New Hampshire is situated the most northern of the thirteen original states and lies between latitude 42-40 and 45-18 north and longitude 70-37 and 72-37 west. It is about 180 miles long and 50 miles wide, although the extreme width is 93 miles.

It is bounded on the north by Quebec province in Canada, on the east by Maine and the Atlantic ocean, on the south by Massachusetts, and on the west by Vermont. The Connecticut River is the western boundary.

"MOTHER OF RIVERS"

Geographies sometimes speak of the state as the "Mother of Rivers." Five of the great streams of New England originate in its granite hills. The Connecticut River rises in the northern part, and for nearly one hundred miles of its winding course hems the shores of the state with a "broad seam of silver." The Pemigewasset River starts in the Profile Lake in the Franconia mountains and joins the Winnepesaukee at Franklin to form the Merrimack, which at one time turned more spindles than any other river in the world. The Cochecho and Salmon Falls rivers join at Dover to form the Piscataqua. In addition, two of the principal rivers of Maine, the Androscoggin and the Saco, have their beginnings in northern New Hampshire.

New Hampshire has 1300 lakes or ponds and 40,000 miles of rivers and streams which provide year round fishing and recreation in scenic surroundings, as well as power for the State's many industries.

"THE GRANITE STATE"

New Hampshire is commonly known as the Granite State, and of late years by some writers is called the Queen State — "Queen by right of her natural beauty; queen by her native hardy spirit; queen by her diversified industry; queen by reason of her motherhood of great men. She is enthroned on hills of granite, diademed with sparkling waters and sceptered with industry."

The state entertains annually over a million summer visitors who resort in the mountain, lake and seashore scenery, — in fact it has been estimated that a million automobiles cross our borders annually! The soil is suitable for fruits, flowers and vegetables. The forests of pine, spruce and hard wood add beauty to the landscape and wealth to the land.

The White Mountains are the natural feature which has the widest fame. New Hampshire bodies of water cover one hundred and fifteen thousand acres and vary from small ponds to Lake Winnepesaukee, which is twenty-two miles long and eight miles wide.

New Hampshire's publicly-owned aerial tramway, the first erected to a mountain top in North America, is located in Franconia Notch near The Old Man of the Mountain. Its cars have carried 2,000,000 passengers in their eight-minute ascent of the 2022 feet to the top.

No state grows apples of finer flavor than come from the hillsides of New Hampshire. Horticultural shows have no better exhibits than are presented from towns in the southern part of this state, where the orchards have been sprayed and treated by the latest scientific methods. Strawberries, blueberries, peaches and products of the garden are grown in great quantities and shipped hundreds of miles.

New Hampshire is also famous for her products made from the sap of the maple tree.

Dairying is a large business and in recent years the quality of the herds has increased tenfold. There are 5,779,840 acres of land in the state, 1,960,061 acres being in farm land, with the number of farms estimated at 16,554, according to the 1940 farm census. There were over two and one-half million acres of timber land, which contained over thirty billion feet of merchantable timber, but the disastrous hurricane of 1938 has sadly depleted the standing timber in New Hampshire's granite hills.

It is estimated that every year more than four million dollars is permanently invested in the purchase of land and the construction of buildings in the rural districts. Nearly every town has some summer visitors. Winnepesaukee shores are lined with cottages and hotels; Sunapee has a summer population of over five thousand, who enjoy its beauties.

The state has a seaboard of about eighteen miles. Hampton and Rye beaches have been famous summer resorts since the days Whittier pitched his "tent on the beach." The salt waves of the Atlantic lap the sometimes sandy, sometimes rocky coast into one continuous pleasure ground, where surf bathing and scenic beauty enchant the visitor. In the early fall of 1915 a disastrous fire at Hampton Beach destroyed many of the hotels and places of business there, but the resort has since been rebuilt from the ruins until it is larger and more attractive than ever. The recreational area at Hampton Beach has greatly improved the appearance of that part of the coast. The state maintains a large public bath house and a parking area there. The erection of a sea wall in 1934 not only improved the property along the coast, but was a necessary measure against coast erosion.

Among New Hampshire's all-year, all-season recreation attractions, none are more popular than its winter sports. Mount Washington is the highest mountain east of the Rockies and north of the Mason-Dixon Line. Its privately-owned cog railway was the first mountain climbing railway in the world.

New Hampshire has some of the finest ski terrain in the east where the sport may be enjoyed well into July and August. Its many lifts include the widely known Cranmore skimobile, operated all year, and Tuckerman, Cannon, Sunapee and Gilford slopes.

Portsmouth, the only sea city, has an historic past and a prosperous present with its large navy yard. New Castle is a place of romance and aesthetic beauty and adventure. A large part of the Isles of Shoals in Portsmouth harbor belongs to New Hampshire, with their cottages and hotels. Lobster fishermen find the Isles of Shoals and the New Hampshire coast favorable areas for taking this famous sea food. The state highways are as fine as any state can boast of and are kept in excellent driving condition the year round. New Hampshire is open to visitors, from the coast to the mountains, twelve months in the year.

FISH AND GAME

In 1865 New Hampshire joined the vanguard of American science by establishing a fish and game department, the first one of its kind in New England. Since that date, some eighty odd years ago, the efforts of this department have been devoted to the propagation and conservation of fish and game.

In modern times the cultivation of fish and the protection of wild life have demanded the application of scientific methods quite as much as any other element of our life. It is a known fact that while European countries have found vast resources in their shore fisheries, the United States is by no means able to rely on her coast fisheries, and has thus been obliged to develop her inland waters to meet the needs that otherwise could have been met only by importation from other countries. Moreover, while Europe's supply is bound to lessen in time to come, our supply will continue to increase.

Today, New Hampshire's Fish and Game Department employs a balanced team of trained wildlife men, fish culturists, and law enforcement officers to maintain and increase the available supplies of her native species under the pressure of vastly increased demand. To do so means that every one of her waters and every bit of cover must be contributing its full share to the state's crop. Research personnel are constantly exploring new avenues to increase natural productivity, while evaluating the results of current practices.

Since World War II, a program of modernization and expansion of fish rearing facilities has more than doubled the annual output available for stocking. Beautiful new rearing stations which rank with any in the country for modern design and efficient operation have been built at Merrymeeting Lake, New Durham at Summer Brook in Ossipee, and at Merrimack, between Manchester and Nashua. Five other stations at Colebrook, Twin Mountain, Warren, New Hampton, and Richmond have been completely reconditioned.

Fish and game is now recognized as a major factor in the recreation business which is one of New Hampshire's foremost sources of revenue. We can be justly proud of the effective teamwork between department personnel and the sportsmen of the state who are looking forward with the eye of true conservationists to establishing the fish and wildlife species of our state on a secure footing for future years. Deer, grouse, black bear, snowshoe hares, landlocked salmon, togue, black bass, and several species of brook trout are only a few of the wild residents which are to be found in such plenty as to make sportsmen choose New Hampshire first.

"COME TO NEW HAMPSHIRE"

New Hampshire believes in progress and development in every direction. It is the third most industrialized state in the Union and prizes itself on the quality and diversification of its products. New Hampshire is the home of the famous breed of poultry known as the "New Hampshires." She invites the whole world to visit her mountains, the "playground of America." Those seeking opportunity for profitable farming will do well to write for further information to the Commissioner of Agriculture, Concord, N. H.; sportsmen are invited to send for literature and advice to the Fish and game Director, Concord, N. H.; those looking for business openings, either in manufacturing enterprises or in the retail field, should correspond with the New Hampshire Dept. of Resources and Economic Development, Concord, N. H.

THE STATE HOUSE

The first discussions regarding the erection of a suitable state capitol building in New Hampshire took place in the year 1814. It was indeed a memorable year. The War of 1812 had come to a close with the signing of the Treaty of Ghent, although the news had not reached America until after our troops under General Jackson had continued fighting into 1815 and won the famous battle of New Orleans.

Other matters attracted state attention. One was the election of a "Republican" governor, William Plumer, who defeated the "Federalists." Another was the Dartmouth College case in which the Governor favored state domination of the College. The legislature considered the proposed new capitol building, but first had to determine in what locality it would be.

The contest was between Concord, Hopkinton, and Salisbury, the last named town having offered seven thousand dollars for the honor. In the end Concord won, and by 1816 final action had been taken to build there.

Considerable expense was saved the town of Concord by the decision to build the Capitol of granite from what are now the Swenson quarries at the north end of the town, and to have the cutting and shaping and facing of the stones done by the inmates of the prison.

A feature of the new and imposing building thus provided was its huge gold-painted wooden eagle, which was raised to the top of the dome in 1818. Appropriate ceremonies presided over by Governor Plumer were marked by a series of toasts, one of which was, "The American Eagle. May the shadow of his wings protect every acre of our united continent and the lightning of his eye flash terror and defeat through the ranks of our enemies."

The new building's actual cost was only approximately $82,000, but it provided adequate quarters for the legislature and committees, the Governor and Council, the Secretary of State, the Treasurer, and the library. Stuart J. Park, the builder, goes down in history as having done an admirable job, and he has a Concord street to the north of the building, Park Street, named in his honor. The first session of the legislature to be held in the new building was in 1819.

There is no record of discussion of enlargements or expansion of Capitol facilities until 1857. At that time there was pointed out the need for more library space and rooms for new departments. Nothing was done, however, until the problem became acute in one of the Civil War years, 1863, through the offer of the city of Manchester of a sizeable sum to build a new capitol and locate it there. This amount was stated to be no less than half a million dollars.

The legislature having voted to retain the Capitol in Concord, plans were at once made to undertake its enlargement and remodeling. This was begun in 1864 and completed by 1866. The cost was said to have been approximately $200,000.

In 1881, plans having been proposed to gain new space for needs caused by growth in State operations, by the removal of the library to a building of its own, plans for such a building were made. These plans, as ultimately adopted, not only provided for a "State Library," but for the Supreme Court as well, and the building was finally completed in 1895. The Library was later enlarged in 1903.

Not until 1903 was the problem of increasing needs for more space in the conduct of the State's business to come under discussion. In this discussion the point was conclusively made that "the majority of State offices cannot be provided with accommodations and are located in other buildings . . ." and that this was uneconomical and ought to be corrected.

Acting under a resolution which instructed the Governor and Council to remedy this situation, Governor Bachelder employed a firm of Boston architects to prepare a plan for an extensive enlargement of the Capitol.

The arguments included the danger from fire, the inadequacy of the House and Senate to seat the membership, and the lack of meeting rooms for the legislative committees. This called for what amounted to an entirely new state house at an expense of approximately a million dollars, and by 1909 a bill for such an amount was introduced.

Again the city of Manchester entered the scene, offering the million if the state house might be removed and rebuilt there. The legislature voted again to retain the Capitol in Concord, and an act for the issuance of bonds for the construction required was passed.

Governor Quinby and his Council then employed architects under whose plans the entire building was remodeled precisely as it is today, making the entire building fire-proof in all its parts, providing electric elevators, modern lighting, vaults, and an up-to-date heating system. During the years following, the proposal of 1903 regarding the necessity of providing for the various departments under one head was again considered, and plans were drawn in 1937 for the present State House Annex.

The corner-stone for this new undertaking was laid in 1938, and the cost at completion, including a considerable grant from the federal government, amounted to $327,000. Here are housed more than twenty of the State's departments in modern, well-equipped offices. The Annex is connected by an underground passageway with the Capitol itself.

Since the building of the Annex, other improvements have been undertaken to keep the State government in step with modern progress. Recently the entire outer surface of the Capitol Building has been expertly sanded and washed, restoring the granite stones to their original clean, fresh appearance.

Likewise the statues of John Stark, Daniel Webster, President Pierce, John P. Hale, and Commodore Perkins have been properly cleaned and made tarnishproof by a modern professional process. Also the gilded wooden eagle, the Capitol Building's long familiar emblem, having been found to be suffering from the effects of many decades of weathering, has been replaced by an element-proof metal replica which now adorns the dome where its gold will glisten in the sunshine of long years to come. These things are among the accomplishments of the administration of Governor Lane Dwinell.

As parts of Massachusetts Bay Colony (1641-3 to 1679) the towns of Hampton, Exeter, Dover, and Strawberry Bank were comprised within Norfolk county, which was one of the four shires, viz., Essex, Middlesex, Suffolk, and Norfolk, into which the Bay Colony was separated from "3d month, 10th day 1643."

The Province of New Hampshire agitated the subject of county establishment for years previous to decisive action in 1769, one plan, which came to nought in 1755, being to make two counties, Portsmouth and Cumberland, with the Merrimack as the dividing line.

The act which passed April 29, 1769, contained the provision that it should not take effect until "his majesty's royal approbation thereof be known," and the further provision that "said counties of Strafford and Grafton shall be for the present annexed to and deemed and taken as parts and members of the County of Rockingham  until the governor by and with the advice of the council shall declare them respectively sufficient for the exercise of their respective jurisdictions and no longer." Governor John Wentworth, in a message to the house of representatives in March, 1771, said "It gives me great pleasure to inform you that his majesty has been graciously pleased to approve and confirm the act for dividing this Province into counties." The existence of Rockingham, Hillsborough, and Cheshire counties began on March 19, 1771, Strafford and Grafton having received authority to exercise and enjoy county privileges, as set forth in Governor John Wentworth's message to the house on May 28, 1772, their separation from Rockingham became effective on June 5, 1773, by the terms of the act of February 5, 1773, "fixing the times and places for holding courts in  Grafton county," four months being allowed for the building of "prisons, court houses," etc.

FIRST DIVISION

The division of 1769, by the "Act for dividing this Province into Counties and for the more easy administration of Justice," was as follows: "The bounds of the first County to begin at the mouth of Piscataqua River and to run up the same to the Easterly corner of Newmarket including the River, and from thence Northwesterly by the Easterly and Northerly sidelines of Newmarket, Epping, Nottingham, Chichester and Canterbury to the River, and down the same line of Concord including the River, then round the Westerly Lines of Bow, Concord and Pembroke to Merrimack River, thence down the same to the North west corner of Derryfield, thence by the Easterly lines of Derryfield, Litchfield and Nottingham. In that year the five counties of Rockingham, Strafford, Hillsborough, Cheshire and Grafton were established.

Coos was the sixth county, established in 1803. Merrimack was established in 1823. Sullivan in 1827, and Belknap and Carroll in 1840. HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES—1789—1963

Under the constitutional apportionment which provided for a house of representatives in congress, New Hampshire was allotted three seats. The national census of 1790 (first census) increased this to four, the second census of 1800 to five and the third census of 1810 to six seats. The census of 1830 reduced it to five, that of 1840 to four and that of 1850 to three. The census of 1870 reduced it to two, but the seat taken away was restored until the next census of 1880, since when the state has had two representatives.

Revolutionary Councilors, 1776—84

Article 60 of the second part of the constitution provides for an executive council of five men to advise and act with the governor. Before the constitution there was a council both under the temporary constitution of the Revolution and under the provincial government. Since 1913 councilors have been elected by plurality vote to represent population but previously to that they were elected by majority vote to represent property, and in the colonial days they were appointed.

The following is a complete list of all the councilors since the Revolution giving the name and address of each and the year in which he was elected or appointed.

THE SENATE

The senate began under the constitution and first met in 1784. There were at first twelve senators who represented the five counties that then existed, five senators from Rockingham county, two from Strafford, two from Hillsborough, two from Cheshire, and one from Grafton. In 1793 senatorial districts were created to take the place of county representation and each district elected one senator. The elections during the early years took place in March and the legislature met in June annually.

The senatorial districting of 1793 was changed over in 1803 and several times subsequently. In 1878 the senate was doubled in size. In 1915 the senators were elected by plurality instead of majority vote. The following is a complete list of the senators from the beginning, showing the name and residence of each member of each senate, arranged in the order of districts from 1793, when the districts were created, and previous to that year, in the order of counties.

FEDERAL CENSUS

THE UNITED STATES

The United States is composed of fifty states, one district, one commonwealth, and five major non-contiguous territories and possessions.

The republic originated in the rebellion of the British Colonies of North America, Canada excepted, in 1776, and in the Declaration of Independence, the thirteen colonies in revolt styled themselves "The United States of America."

The Canadian boundary line is 3,900 miles in length, the Mexican boundary line being 1,975 miles in length.

According to the 1940 Federal census, the first basic re-measurement of the land and water area of the continental United States since 1880 showed a total area of 3,022,387 square miles, consisting of 2,977,128 square miles land area, and 45,259 square miles inland water area. The total area of Alaska, according to this census, is 586,400 square miles and the total area of Hawaii is 6,419 square miles.

The Capitol of the United States is at Washington, D. C. The corner stone of the original building was laid on September 18, 1793 by President George Washington. The original building was finally completed in 1827, its cost, including the grading of grounds, alterations and repairs up to that year, having been $2,433,844.13.

FEDERAL CENSUS OF 1960

Number of Inhabitants

The State. New Hampshire was one of the Thirteen Original States. Its population on April 1, 1960, according to the Eighteenth Census, was 606,921. The State has a land area of 9,017 square miles. In 1960 there was an average of 67.3 inhabitants per square mile as compared with an average of 59.1 in 1950. Among the States and the District of Columbia, New Hampshire ranked 45th in population and 44th in land area.

In 1790 New Hampshire had a population of 141,885 (Table 1). In 1960, 170 years later, its population was over four times as large. The rate of population growth of the State has been consistently below that for the Nation as a whole. In the twentieth century, the intercensal rates of growth ranged from a low of 2.9 per cent to a record high of 13.8 per cent. In 1900 the population of the State was 411,588, and in 1950 it was 533,242.

Usual place of residence. In accordance with census practice dating back to 1790, each person enumerated in the 1960 Census was counted as an inhabitant of his usual place of residence or usual place of abode, which is generally construed to mean the place where he lives and sleeps most of the time. This place is not necessarily the same as his legal residence, voting residence, or domicile; however, in the vast majority of cases, the use of these different bases of classification would produce substantially the same statistics, although there may be appreciable differences for a few areas.

In the application of this rule, persons were not always counted as residents of the places in which they happened to be found by the census enumerators. Persons in the larger hotels, motels, and similar places where guests usually pay for quarters were enumerated on the night of March 31, and those whose usual place of residence was elsewhere were allocated to their homes. In addition, information on persons away from their usual place of residence was obtained from other members of their families, landladies, etc. If an entire family was expected to be away during the whole period of the enumeration, information on it was obtained from neighbors. A matching process was used to eliminate duplicate reports for a person who reported for himself while away from his usual residence and who was also reported at his usual residence by someone else.

Persons in the Armed Forces quartered on military installations were enumerated as residents of the States, counties, and minor civil divisions in which their installations were located. Members of their families were enumerated where they actually resided. As in 1950, college students were considered residents of the communities in which they were residing while attending college. The crews of vessels of the U. S. Navy and the American Merchant Marine in harbors of the United States were counted as part of the population of the ports in which their vessels were berthed on April 1, 1960. Inmates of institutions, who ordinarily live there for long periods of time, were counted as inhabitants of the place in which the institution was located; whereas patients in general hospitals, who ordinarily remain for short periods of time, were counted at, or allocated to, their homes. Persons without a usual place of residence were counted where they were enumerated.

Americans who were overseas for an extended period (in the Armed Forces, working at civilian jobs, studying in foreign universities, etc.) are not included in the population of any of the States or the District of Columbia. On the other hand, persons temporarily abroad on vacations, business trips, and the like, were enumerated at their usual residences on the basis of information received from members of their families or from neighbors.

Urban-rural residence. Data on the population of the State by urban-rural residence are shown for the State in Table 1 and for the counties, or comparable areas, in Table 6.* According to the definition adopted for use in the 1960 Census, the urban population comprises all persons living in (a) places of 2,500 inhabitants or more incorporated as cities, boroughs, villages, and towns (except towns in New England, New York, and Wisconsin); (b) the densely settled urban fringe, whether incorporated or unincorporated, of urbanized areas (see section below); (c) towns in New England and townships in New Jersey and Pennsylvania which contain no incorporated municipalities as subdivisions and have either 25,000 inhabitants or more or a population of 2,500 to 25,000 and a density of 1,500 persons or more per square mile; (d) counties in States other than the New England States, New Jersey, and Pennsylvania that have no incorporated municipalities within their boundaries and have a density of 1,500 persons or more per square mile; and (e) unincorporated places of 2,500 inhabitants or more.

This definition of urban is substantially the same as that used in 1950; the major difference between 1950 and 1960 is the designation in 1960 of urban towns in New England and of urban townships in New Jersey and Pennsylvania. The effect on population classification arising from this change was actually less than the list of those places classified as urban under special rules would suggest, because, in 1950, most of the population living in such places was classified as urban by virtue of residence in an urbanized area or in an unincorporated urban place. (See following sections.) In censuses prior to 1950, the urban population comprised all persons living in incorporated places of 2,500 inhabitants or more and areas (usually minor civil divisions) classified as urban under somewhat different special rules relating to population size and density. In all definitions, the population not classified as urban constitutes the rural population. In the tables presenting the population by urban-rural residence, the "current" urban definition refers to the population classified in accordance with the definitions used in 1950 and 1960. The term "previous" urban definition refers to the definition used prior to 1950.

The most important component of the urban territory in all definitions is the group of incorporated places having 2,500 inhabitants or more. A definition of urban territory restricted to such places, however, excludes a number of equally large and densely settled places merely because they are not incorporated places. Under the definition used previous to 1950, an effort was made to avoid some of the more obvious omissions by the inclusion of selected places which were classified as urban under special rules. Even with these rules, however, many large and closely built-up places were excluded from the urban territory.

To improve its measure of the urban population, the Bureau of the Census adopted, in 1950, the concept of the urbanized area and delineated, in advance of enumeration, boundaries for unincorporated places. All the population residing in urban-fringe areas and in unincorporated places of 2,500 or more is classified as urban according to the "current" definition. The urban towns, townships, and counties as defined for the 1960 Census are somewhat similar in concept to the minor civil divisions classified as urban under special rules in 1940 and 1930.

For the convenience of those interested in the historical trend of the urban and rural population, the 1950 and 1960 population figures are shown on the basis of both the "current" definition and the "previous" definition. Although the Bureau of the Census has employed other definitions of "urban" in prior years, the urban and rural population figures published here as according to the "previous" definition have been revised to present a substantially consistent series.

Minor civil divisions. To the primary political divisions into which counties or comparable areas are divided, the Bureau of the Census applies the general term "minor civil divisions." Statistics on the population of each county or comparable area by minor civil divisions appear in Table 7.* Incorporated places which are not themselves minor civil divisions and unincorporated places are shown indented under the minor civil divisions in which they are located. When an incorporated or unincorporated place lies in more than one minor civil division, the population of the several parts is shown in table 7 under the appropriate minor civil division, and each part is designated as "part." The total population of such places appears in table 8. Unincorporated places are designated by "U" and urban towns and townships by "UT." Changes effected between 1950 and 1960 in boundaries of the areas are shown in the notes at the end of Table 7.* Boundary changes occurring between 1940 and 1950 are given in Table 6 of State reports of the 1950 Census of Population.

Places. The term "place" as used in reports of the decennial censuses refers to a concentration of population, regardless of the existence of legally prescribed limits, powers, or functions. Most of the places listed are incorporated as cities, towns, villages, or boroughs, however. In addition, the larger unincorporated places outside the urbanized areas were delineated and those with a population of 1,000 or more are presented in the same manner as incorporated places of equal size. Each unincorporated place possesses a definite nucleus of residences and has its boundaries drawn so as to include, if feasible, all the surrounding closely settled area. Furthermore, unincorporated places are shown within urbanized areas if they have 10,000 inhabitants or more and if there was an expression of local interest in their recognition. The towns in New England and townships in New Jersey and Pennsylvania recognized as urban are also counted as places.

Incorporated places. Political units recognized as incorporated places in the reports of the decennial censuses are those which are incorporated as cities, boroughs, towns, and villages with the exception that towns are not recognized as incorporated places in the New England States, New York, and Wisconsin. The towns in these States are minor civil divisions similar to the townships found in other States and not necessarily thickly settled centers of population such as the cities, boroughs, towns, and villages in other States. Similarly, in New Jersey and Pennsylvania, where some townships possess powers and functions similar to those of incorporated places, the townships are not classified as "incorporated places." Thus some minor civil divisions which are "incorporated" in one legal sense of the word are not regarded by the Census Bureau as "incorporated places." Without this restriction all of the towns in the New England States, New York, and Wisconsin and the townships in New Jersey and Pennsylvania would have to be counted as incorporated places without any consideration of the nature of population settlement. A number of towns and townships in these States do qualify, however, as urban towns or townships and in others the densely settled portions are recognized as unincorporated places or as parts of an urban fringe.

Unincorporated places. As in the 1950 Census, the Bureau has delineated boundaries for densely settled population centers without corporate limits. All such places of 1,000 inhabitants or more are shown in Tables 7 and 8.* Population data for 1950 are shown only for those unincorporated places which had the same name in both 1950 and 1960. Of course, the boundaries of many such places have changed as the communities have grown.

Urban places. The count of urban places in 1960 includes all incorporated and unincorporated places of 2,500 inhabitants or more, and the towns, townships, and counties classified as urban. Under the "previous" urban definition, places of 2,500 or more and the areas urban under special rules were urban places.

Urbanized areas. The major objective of the Bureau of the Census in delineating urbanized areas was to provide a better separation of urban and rural population in the vicinity of the larger cities, but individual urbanized areas have proved to be useful statistical areas. They correspond to what are called "conurbations" in some other countries. An urbanized area contains at least one city of 50,000 inhabitants or more in 1960,¹ as well as the surrounding closely settled incorporated places and unincorporated areas that meet the criteria listed below. All persons residing in an urbanized area are included in the urban population.

It appeared desirable to delineate the urbanized areas in terms of the 1960 Census results rather than prior to the census as was done in 1950. For this purpose a peripheral zone around each 1950 urbanized area and around cities that were presumably approaching a population of 50,000 was recognized. Within the unincorporated parts of this zone small enumeration districts were planned,² usually including no more than one square mile of land area and no more than 75 housing units.

Arrangements were made to include within the urbanized area those enumeration districts meeting specified criteria of population density as well as adjacent incorporated places. Since the urbanized area outside of incorporated places was defined in terms of enumeration districts, the boundaries for the most part follow such features as roads, streets, railroads, streams, and other clearly defined lines which may be easily identified by census enumerators in the field and often do not conform to the boundaries of political units.

In addition to its central city or cities, an urbanized area also contains the following types of contiguous areas, which together constitute its urban fringe:

1. Incorporated places with 2,500 inhabitants or more
2. Incorporated places with less than 2,500 inhabitants, provided each has a closely settled area of 100 dwelling units or more
3. Towns in the New England States, townships in New Jersey and Pennsylvania, and counties elsewhere which are classified as urban
4. Enumeration districts in unincorporated territory with a population density of 1,000 inhabitants or more per square mile (The area of large nonresidential tracts devoted to such urban land uses as railroad yards, factories, and cemeteries, was excluded in computing the population density of an enumeration district.)

¹ There are a few urbanized areas where there are "twin central cities" that have a combined population of at least 50,000. See the section on "Standard Metropolitan Statistical Areas" in State reports of the 1960 Census of Population for further discussion of twin central cities, neither of which has a population of 50,000 or more.

² An enumeration district (ED) is a small area assigned to an enumerator which must be canvassed and reported separately. In most cases an ED contains approximately 250 housing units.

5. Other enumeration districts in unincorporated territory with lower population density provided that they served one of the following purposes:

- a. To eliminate enclaves
- b. To close indentations in the urbanized area of one mile or less across the open end
- c. To link outlying enumeration districts of qualifying density that were no more than $1\frac{1}{2}$ miles from the main body of the urbanized area.

Contiguous urbanized areas with central cities in the same standard metropolitan statistical area are combined. Urbanized areas with central cities in different standard metropolitan statistical areas are not combined, except that a single urbanized area was established in the New York-Northeastern New Jersey Standard Consolidated Area, and in the Chicago-Northwestern Indiana Standard Consolidated Area.

The boundaries of the urbanized areas for 1960 will not conform to those for 1950, partly because of actual changes in land use and density of settlement, and partly because of relatively minor changes in the rules used to define the boundaries. The changes in the rules include the following:

1. The use of enumeration districts to construct the urbanized areas in 1960 resulted in a less precise definition than in 1950 when the limits were selected in the field using individual blocks as the unit of area added. On the other hand, the 1960 procedures produced an urbanized area based on the census results rather than an area defined about a year before the census, as in 1950.

2. Unincorporated territory was included in the 1950 urbanized area if it contained at least 500 dwelling units per square mile, which is somewhat different criterion than the 1,000 persons or more per square mile of the included 1960 unincorporated areas.

3. The 1960 areas include those entire towns in New England, townships in New Jersey and Pennsylvania, and counties that are classified as urban in accordance with the criteria listed in the section on urban-rural residence. The 1950 criteria permitted the exclusion of portions of these particular minor civil divisions.

In general, however, the urbanized areas of 1950 and 1960 are based on essentially the same concept, and the figures for a given urbanized area may be used to measure the population growth of that area.

An urbanized area may be thought of as divided into the central city, or cities, and the remainder of the area, or the urban fringe. Any city in an urbanized area which is a central city of a standard metropolitan statistical area is also a central city of the urbanized area. With but two exceptions, the names of the central cities appear in the titles of the areas. The central cities of the New York-Northeastern New Jersey Area are the central cities of the New York, Newark, Jersey City, and Paterson-Clifton-Passaic Standard Metropolitan Statistical Areas. Likewise, the central cities of the Chicago-Northwestern Indiana Area are the central cities of the Chicago and Gary-Hammond-East Chicago Standard Metropolitan Statistical Areas.

Data for the entire urbanized area are shown in Table 10 for each State in which a central city of the area is located.* If that part of an urbanized area that extends into another State does not include a central city, data are shown only for that part within the State.

*In State reports of the 1960 Census of Population.

*According to the new urban definition, the urban population comprises persons residing in urban territory but not necessarily in an urban place, which is defined as an incorporated place of 2,500 or more, or an unincorporated place of 2,500 or more located outside an urbanized area. Under the old definition, incorporated places of 2,500 or more and places urban under special rule are classified as urban places.

¹Includes 4,308 persons in urban territory outside of urban places.

²Includes 2,186 persons in urban territory outside of urban places.

Persons voted for at a primary, who received a plurality of all the votes cast by a party, shall be candidates of that party for the office designated in the ballot. — RSA 56:53.

The direct primary election was held September 8, 1964, with candidates of the Republican and Democratic parties participating.

In the summary immediately following are the full names and residences of the candidates, also their total votes. Then follow tables carrying the vote in detail and giving only the last names of the candidates.

The first tables give by counties the votes for Governor. The next tables give by districts the votes for Representatives in Congress, the votes for Councilors, and the votes for State Senators. Then follow the tables showing the votes for county offices, and recounts after the Primary.

RECOUNTS AFTER THE PRIMARY

After the Primary, thirteen recounts of ballots were conducted by the Secretary of State; five recounts were Republican contests, and eight were Democratic contests. None of the recounts resulted in a change of nominee.

In Nashua, ward 8, the recount for Democratic representative resulted in a tie vote for one place, and the tie was broken by the Secretary of State.

Following are the tables with the nominees of the Republican and Democratic parties indicated by an asterisk:

REPUBLICAN ORGANIZATION

September 25, 1964

REPORT OF THE PLATFORM COMMITTEE

Preamble

We, The Republican Party of New Hampshire in Convention assembled on this 25th day of September, in the year of our Lord, nineteen-hundred and sixty-four, do hereby affirm with renewed energy and determination our Philosophy of helping people to help themselves.

The unfettered exercise of an individual's freedoms is a privilege held sacred by our heritage. We pledge ourselves to respect this freedom and exercise thereof, while facing the realities of the Twentieth Century.

We accept the challenge to direct the destinies of the State of New Hampshire in a new era of economic and social progress by the loosening of the bonds which now keep our State from forging ahead — into this age of the opening of great new horizons.

Our Party will continue to reflect the wishes of the people through responsible leadership, and not seek the easy solution of always turning to Federal aid for assistance, we pledge that the State will first utilize its own resources.

We present our national and state nominees to the people of New Hampshire with pride. We endorse them as men and women of courage and integrity. We feel that they will wage vigorous and compelling campaigns to bring the people of New Hampshire the issues which are of such compelling importance in this day and age.

Agriculture

The Republican Party recognizes the importance and need of a prosperous agricultural economy for the State of New Hampshire.

1. We believe that our poultry and dairy industries are working under a handicap due to higher freight rates for grain. We pledge ourselves to see that all proper avenues are utilized to eliminate this hardship on New Hampshire agriculture.
2. We urge the elimination of the tax on livestock and poultry.

3. Recognizing the dependence of our farmers on cautious use of pesticides, we believe that the control of their use should only be implemented after consultation with Representatives of agriculture in our State.
4. Since forests are a principal resource of our State, we suggest that emphasis should be given by state agencies and the University to implement increased utilization and marketing of our forest products.
5. We believe that the state should accelerate its efforts to promote the sale of agricultural products.

Apportionment

We recommend an amendment to the United States Constitution, which would reserve to the states the right to apportion one of its legislative bodies by a method other than population.

Civil Rights

New Hampshire's tradition of individual dignity and inalienable rights predates the federal constitution and the amendments thereto guaranteeing equal protection of the law to all persons, irrespective of race, color or creed.

This New Hampshire tradition persists in statutes and most recent decisions of our highest court.

The Republican Party will work to recognize, insure and defend realistically those inalienable rights so long protected, in the enforcement of legislation to that end.

Economic Development

The Republican Party believes that the future economic development of our State will come from aggressive leadership by business and labor working together in order to achieve equal opportunity for all to work, regardless of race, color, creed or national origin. We also believe in more job opportunities, and a higher standard of living for all our citizens.

1. We firmly believe that industrial development is one of the most pressing problems facing the State of New Hampshire today. The intensive competition for industry makes it essential that there be a full mobilization of all resources of the State Government, cities and towns, and private citizens to attract industry to New Hampshire in order that all areas of our state may share increased prosperity.

We further pledge the appointment of fully qualified and professionally competent men to administer the programs so initiated.

2. We urge that special emphasis be placed on establishing more competitive shipping costs.
3. We advocate that every effort be made to improve all avenues under which we can expand our commercial and cultural exchanges with Canada.
4. We recognize that the economic future of this State can be greatly enhanced by opening the gateways to the West in order that international trade can flow through the Port of Portsmouth and across our State to the West. We recommend that the Portsmouth Port Authority be given all the support necessary to insure its growth.
5. We urge due to the increasing traffic in international air freight and the congested air traffic in the cities of New York and Boston, it is recommended that an air cargo center be established within our State, and that arrangements be made for East-West air travel as well as North-South, with air freight lines for movement of goods throughout the world.
6. We strongly support improved mail service particularly air-mail, making available air post offices at all airports and with mail subsidies for such service.
7. We support additional authorization to the Industrial Park Authority to borrow on guaranteed funds for industrial and recreational development if the need is established.

Education

We Republicans realize that our hopes and dreams for the future center upon our children and their education. Our children are the fibre of our strength. We re-affirm our belief in local support and local control of the public schools. We, also, strongly believe in a fair distribution of educational opportunity for all children in the State. We, therefore, favor expansion of state financial aid to put all public schools on an equitable basis.

1. We recognize the upgrading and expansion needs from the elementary level through the university level.

2. We urge immediate implementation of the Republican sponsored law for the construction of one technical and five area technical vocational schools.
3. We urge an expanded State effort with regard to additional training for our mentally retarded children so that all those who are in the educable category might live as productive citizens and all those in the trainable category might live more self-sufficient lives. We renew our urging for full State support for special classrooms and training schools.
4. We believe in continued financial incentives to promote the consolidation of school districts. We believe every effort should be made to follow up and implement the basic suggestions made by the Interim Commission relative to Public Schools.
5. We applaud efforts by concerned citizens to work through all private agencies to provide the opportunity for higher education to all of our citizens.
6. We pledge continued support to the upgrading of faculty salaries and professional status at Plymouth and Keene State Colleges.
7. We support higher maximum salaries for teachers in order to strengthen the educational opportunities of New Hampshire children by attracting competent young people to the teaching profession and providing incentive for teachers to continue to serve the State.
8. We believe that further strengthening of Vocational Education in our secondary schools would provide for an increasingly evident need in the lives of our young people and in the economic welfare of New Hampshire.
9. Believing that educational television has far reaching potential, we urge support of Channel 11, recommending complete coverage of the State, as quickly as possible to insure equal educational opportunity to all and further urge that programs of teacher training to make maximum use of this medium be initiated at the earliest possible date.
10. We support the planned program for continuous improvement of the state educational institutions, namely, University of New Hampshire, Plymouth State College and Keene State College, and the necessary funds to implement this program. Study and review of the millage formula will be necessary to meet these goals.

11. We urge the increased implementation of the present formula of foundation aid.
12. We support a program that recognizes the educational needs of the gifted child as well as those of the physically handicapped.
13. We recognize the need and will support expanded programs in teacher preparation in all areas in the field of special education.
14. The cancerous growth of International Communism is a constant menace to our great nation from within and without. We believe that perpetual vigilance is necessary to preserve our freedom, and that our children from an early age be taught that vigilance is necessary in order to help thwart the evil designs of the Communistic conspiracy.

General

We oppose the construction of the large dam at Livermore Falls but urge that all possible solutions to the problems of pollution on the Pemigewasset be thoroughly implemented.

Health and Welfare

1. We believe that medical care for our elderly citizens is a matter of concern for both the State and Federal governments, and we endorse further implementation of medical aid to the aged under the Kerr-Mills Bill which was passed by a Republican administration.
2. We support proper and adequate staffing of welfare offices to permit more careful screening of cases and to provide increased and efficient service for our senior citizens.
3. We urge an expanded mental health program with community mental health clinics and the creation of an out-patient clinic at the State Hospital when sufficient staff is available.
4. We urge immediate action including the primary need for proper adjustments to:
 - a. Properly staff the State Hospital for the responsible and reasonable care of its patients.
 - b. Expand New Hampshire's one year accredited course for residence in psychiatry to a three year course, to terminate in July, 1965.
 - c. Retain New Hampshire's affiliation for Nurses Training psychiatry.

5. We recommend an increase in daily state payments for nursing home care.
6. We recommend expansion of our Child Guidance Clinic so that more children can be helped.

Labor

The records of labor management relations in this state and the common striving for the betterment of job opportunities must be continued for all.

1. We note with growing concern the policies of our nation permitting increased imports of goods produced by cheap labor. The importation of these goods is creating unemployment in our state. Therefore we urge our congressional delegation to safeguard the industries of our state from this danger.
2. We support an aggressive program for retraining workers in areas of technological unemployment.
3. We support a program which would make use of the experience and talents of those retired and handicapped persons which are not being presently utilized.
4. We urge that a thorough study be made of the problem of seasonal unemployment and its effect on our labor force.
5. We believe that every effort should be made to enable adult workers to increase their earning capacity by thorough learning additional skills.
6. We support equal rights for women in job opportunity and compensation.

Libraries

We urge the Statewide Library Development System, approved by the 1963 Republican Legislature, to be now completely implemented through appropriation of necessary state funds to help provide libraries for all.

Such a major forward step in the expansion of library service will strengthen the general educational assets of New Hampshire in bringing up to date the library facilities of every community.

Natural Resources

The Republican Party realizes that natural resources, both State and private, are a powerful potential wealth. Careful utilization and expansion, coupled with continued conservation, will increase land values, and in turn, the general potential for additional revenues.

1. We support an acceleration of effort on the reclamation programs already in effect and urge that any private efforts along these lines be encouraged.
2. We urge that the water pollution laws be enforced as to public or private facilities in order to prevent contamination of our beautiful lakes and rivers. We recommend that all aid possible should be extended to the towns and cities to assist in controlling pollution of waterways.
3. Water is one of our greatest natural resources. We recommend that a study be made of the uses of water to benefit our people and aid industry.

Recreation

We recognize the important contribution that the recreational industry makes to the economy of our State by bringing people from throughout the world to visit us. We are also acutely aware of the need to locate recreational areas close to the centers of population within our State.

1. We urge, therefore, that state recreational facilities should be operated on a competitive and self-supporting basis, and not be permitted to operate at an annual net loss as a drain on the revenues of our State.
2. Private enterprise should be encouraged to operate such recreational enterprises in which it can do as well or better than could be accomplished by State operation.
3. Wherever necessary and expedient, we advocate that the legislature approve access roads to private recreational developments to be constructed by the State, and repayment made through a toll road plan.
4. We believe that historical sites should be preserved, marked and maintained as examples of our pride in the great heritage of our State.
5. We strongly support an independent Fish and Game Commission and rehabilitation of present facilities should be undertaken and financed by a bond issue.
6. We strongly urge that our state programs of advertising and promotion be reviewed and expanded, and that the State explore all avenues of cooperation with the efforts of private organizations in these fields.

7. We advocate an increase in the authorization for loan guaranteed funds of the Industrial Park Authority which may be used for recreational development.

Revenue

In order that we can raise the proper revenue to expand our schools, upgrade all phases of education, improve services in our local communities, pay equitable salaries at all levels of government and make New Hampshire a state that will attract industry, we recommend and urge:

1. That our entire tax structure be examined by the General Court, statute by statute to remove unfair and antiquated taxes that are no longer equitable, and to lessen the tax burden on the home owners of New Hampshire.
2. To prepare a tax structure that will be fair and equitable to all citizens of this state and will produce sufficient revenue to meet the needs of New Hampshire as proposed in this platform, without the imposition of a sales tax or an income tax.

The Republican Party feels so strongly about the need for a complete reorganization of our entire tax structure that we recommend this program be started immediately after election and be completed and enacted before the end of the 1965 Legislative Sessions.

We favor the repeal of the tax on livestock and poultry. The revenue from these taxes is exceedingly small and bears unfairly on a small number of our already hard pressed farmers. We favor the repeal of the tax on stock-in-trade which keeps industry out of our state and replace the revenue that will be lost at the local level by an equitable tax on business.

We further pledge ourselves to reduce expenditures in every non-essential function.

State Employees

The Republican Party asserts its belief in the dignity of State service and the right of the career State employee to receive a salary or wage commensurate to similar work performed outside of State Service.

Therefore:

1. We endorse good personnel practices in State Service which dictate a sound salary and wage policy.

2. We pledge that the salary and wage policy of the Republican Party for State Service shall be as follows:
 - a. That salaries and wages paid for State jobs common to other governmental services and private business in New Hampshire be comparable jobs.
 - b. That salaries and wages paid for jobs unique to State Service only, be comparable with the averages paid for similar positions in neighboring States.
3. We pledge to support a salary and wage increase in the 1965 session of the General Court to implement the policy of the Republican Party to pay its classified State Employees salaries and wages comparable to that specified above.
4. We urge that qualified New Hampshire residents be given the first opportunity for State jobs.

Traffic Safety

The traffic accidents and increased highway activity, the increase in automobile registrations, and the expansion in our total highway mileage presents a very serious human and economic problem.

Solution of this problem requires coordination between state program and organized citizen support with intensified activity:

1. We believe that the state should encourage development of citizen supported organizations for traffic safety.
2. We advocate increasing our State Police Troopers Force to patrol adequately the state highways.
3. We favor stricter licensing, and reexamination requirements should be established.

Transportation

The State's dependence on highways continues to increase. Highway transportation is therefore of increasing importance to our industrial, agricultural and recreational economies and to the convenience of our residents. The state's economic future greatly depends on communication, of which highways and airways are the most important factors.

If we are to take advantage of our geographical position as related to shipping and air transportation, we must have means of transporting commodities and people westward:

1. We urge continuation, at the same accelerated pace, of the state's participation in the inter-state highway system.

2. We advocate greater state participation in the cost of maintaining our secondary road system.
3. We believe that the feasibility of an East-West highway in the North-Central part of the state should be studied.
4. We are in favor of increased efforts to obtain our share of federal development assistance for our State Air Navigation System, in the form of navigational aids. We also favor continued financial support by the state in providing navigational aids to municipal airports constituting a part of the State Air Navigation System.
5. We believe that there should be a combined effort by all appropriate state agencies and members of our congressional delegation to obtain improved scheduled air service of the same quality provided to other areas served by subsidized air carriers.
6. In order to keep abreast of the ever-expanding industrial and tourist traffic on our highways, we support the maximum use of allocated Federal assistance in the construction of a state-wide network of highways to provide for faster economic development.
7. We pledge support for the development of air transportation to our larger cities to the West, as well as to the North and the South and from overseas and will work toward the attraction of air freight facilities not now available in the State.
8. We recommend that a study be made to determine what roads should be built in order to open up the less developed areas of the state, to overcome the handicap that this condition creates for economic development.
9. We recommend a North Country airport development program in order to alleviate the transportation problem in that area.

1964 Referendum

We favor the passage of all eight amendments to the State Constitution proposed by the Constitutional Convention.

Veterans

We favor the continuation of all services to veterans now performed by the State.

We commend the 1963 Republican Legislators' record of accomplishment. The positive approach demonstrated by our legislators resulted in a most fruitful and rewarding session. This was especially true in the field of education, with the development of a Republican program which included:

- a. $1,000,000 more foundation aid than the Governor recommended.
- b. $204,000 granted to the state's 20 most needy towns while the Governor recommended nothing.
- c. $388,000 more than the Governor recommended for school construction.
- d. Accelerated the vocational-technical school program by six years.
- e. Appropriated $285,750 more than the Governor recommended for Keene and Plymouth State Colleges.

The Republican Legislators blocked the Governor's creation of a Board of Regents, or a super control board to supervise all higher education and with power over all state educational funds. The Republican Legislators blocked the Governor from issuing bonds to meet current expenses.

The Republican Legislators, in economic development, rejected the Governor's determination to use federal aid and passed legislation to:

- a. Create additional industrial agents.
- b. Provide access roads to private ski areas.
- c. Appropriate $1,091,477 for economic development.
- d. Grant additional funds to control water pollution.

The Republican Legislators developed a labor program which was one of the most successful in this century including:

- a. Increased minimum wages from $1.00 to $1.25.
- b. Workman's compensation law improved and benefits raised.
- c. Improved employee safety standards.
- d. Improved fringe benefit allotments under state contracts.
- e. Fringe benefits of $500,000 for State employees.

Our Republican Legislators rejected a proposal to pack the municipal courts. They approved a system of district courts which included protection for local judges who had served long and faithfully.

Our Republican Legislators also materially improved the veterans' exemption laws.

The Republican Legislators with the State Republican Leadership were keenly aware of the social needs of the New Hampshire people and are proud of the fact it met these needs.

The 1964 Republican Convention is keenly aware of the outstanding achievements of our Republican Legislators in meeting the social and economic needs of New Hampshire and is proud to present their record and this platform to the voters of this great State.

DEMOCRATIC ORGANIZATION

September 25, 1964

REPORT OF THE PLATFORM COMMITTEE

Preamble

The New Hampshire Democratic Party is grateful to the people of the Granite State for enabling Governor John W. King to restore dignity, efficiency, and harmony to the office of Chief Executive, and for sending Senator Tom McIntyre to the United States Senate so that our State can participate as a full partner with the other forty-nine states in the economic growth and progress of our great nation. Their record has vindicated our abiding faith in the merits of two-party competition. At the same time, the Democratic Party does not choose to rest on past achievement. As Americans we must forge ahead — in New Hampshire and in the nation. We extend a warm welcome to all friends who wish to move forward with us by supporting Governor John W. King and our great national leader, President Lyndon B. Johnson.

Economic Prosperity

Under Governor King's leadership New Hampshire wages and employment have risen to record levels. We became the first State in the East to prepare an integrated master plan for economic development. We created a Foreign Trade Council to expand markets for State products and an Industrial Advisory Council of leading businessmen and labor representatives to plan a more efficient industrial development program. By combining State funds with Federal aid, we also undertook a major improvement in airport facilities; but much more must be done to protect and enlarge our economic prosperity. We therefore pledge:

- To reorganize the Department of Resources and Economic Development along functional lines to make it a far more powerful and better coordinated instrument for economic growth.
- To increase the capacity of the Industrial Park Authority to guarantee loans and assist in establishing new industries.
- To strengthen efforts to expand and diversify New Hampshire's economy and to uncover new markets for its products.

- To continue to promote vacation industries, and specifically to make plans to encourage visits to New Hampshire by tourists to the coming World's Fair in Montreal.
- To support and utilize Federal programs for urban renewal.
- To safeguard workers whose jobs are jeopardized by imports.
- To press for early completion of the inter-state highway system within New Hampshire, and for modernization of the rest of our road network with special attention to the North and West of our State.
- To give our full support to the Portsmouth Naval Shipyard, in recognition of the fact that this installation has a long and honored tradition of high-quality workmanship and that its continuation is vital to the security of our country.

Education

Impressive progress has been made in New Hampshire education in the last two years. Sweepstake revenues are permitting significant improvements in local school systems. The entire sweepstakes program has been conducted with an honesty and efficiency of which we may be justly proud and of which other states are clearly envious. Our State colleges have been revitalized and welded into the first truly unified system of higher education in the history of New Hampshire. We have redeemed our pledge to restore the full millage formula in appropriations for the University of New Hampshire. Three new vocational-technical schools have been approved and are on the way. We have created an Accreditation Committee to ensure high standards for institutions of higher learning. But more must be done. We pledge:

- To support the use of sweepstake revenues to improve local education.
- To improve and expand the facilities of the University of New Hampshire at Durham and of the State colleges at Keene and Plymouth.
- To support a bond issue to help needy communities meet present or prospective requirements for school construction.
- To complete two additional vocational-technical schools and to lay plans for others that may be required.
- To continue to expand educational television until it is available in all parts of the State.
- To continue to support Federal aid to education, and to take full advantage of its benefits, while favoring State supervision over the distribution of funds and continuing local responsibility for the administration of the public school system.

Government Efficiency

Under Governor King, our State streamlined and professionalized the administration of local justice by creating a district court system. It enacted home rule legislation to give local communities more power to govern themselves. It fulfilled a campaign pledge by creating a commission to study the State Constitution, with the result that the Constitutional Convention of 1964 proved the most productive since 1784, providing among other things, for the reapportionment of both houses of the legislature. It remodelled the State House and other public buildings and developed a long-range plan to maintain and improve them. It conducted a thorough review of Executive agencies, including The State Liquor Commission, the Department of Health and Welfare, and the Department of Resources and Economic Development. State Agencies have been alerted to take prompt and full advantage of such Federal benefits as those made available by the Higher Educational Facilities Act, the Land and Water Conservation Act, the Area Redevelopment Act, the War on Poverty Program, the Water Pollution Program, and the Library Services and Construction Act. But more must be done. We pledge:

- To support a pay raise for State employees.
- To favor the constitutional amendments proposed by the Constitutional Convention of 1964.
- To continue the preparation of master plans for plant facilities at each State institution to prevent haphazard and inefficient growth.
- To introduce legislation to provide bi-partisan boards of supervisors of the checklist in all towns.
- To oppose a sales tax and a State income tax.
- To support a right-to-know law.

Health and Welfare

Under the leadership of Governor King, thorough studies were made of our Department of Health and Welfare. In addition, the salaries of social workers were raised to permit the State to recruit and retain better qualified personnel, and also to add better incentives so that the procurement of adequate and dedicated attendants in the Mental Health field will be more simplified. To improve further the health and welfare of our citizens we now pledge:

- To implement the proposals of the Governor's Special Committee on Mental Health, and specifically to create a separate Department of Mental Health.
- To abolish retail controls on milk prices while retaining adequate safeguards for milk producers.
- To support and cooperate with the Medicare and War on Poverty programs.
- To cooperate with neighboring states to plan diagnostic and treatment facilities for the control of cancer and other diseases.
- To encourage our counties to provide higher subsidies for foster homes for dependent children.
- To minimize needless loss of life by encouraging local communities to institute safe swimming programs for both children and adults.
- To support legislation establishing a domestic relations court.

Labor

The working people of New Hampshire have been among the principal beneficiaries of the efforts that have been detailed above in the fields of economic development and health and welfare. Under the Administration of Governor King, the minimum wage for all workers has also been raised to $1.25 per hour, and enabling legislation has been secured to permit city and town employees to enjoy health and accident insurance. In addition, we pledge:

- To support further improvements in workmen's compensation and unemployment compensation programs.
- To favor time-and-a-half for all work in excess of forty hours per week and eight hours per day.
- To oppose any so-called "Right to Work" laws.
- To support the right of all workers, including public employees, to organize, to be recognized by their respective employers, and to bargain collectively through representatives of their own choosing.
- To favor a Fair Employment Practices law that will prohibit discrimination in hiring on grounds of national origin, faith, race or age.
- To favor legislation prohibiting importation of strikebreakers by any party.

— To support the enactment of legislation that will require cities and towns to recognize public employees, and to bargain collectively with representatives chosen by the respective majorities.

Natural Resources and Agriculture

In accordance with our campaign pledge of 1962, State Aid to local pollution control projects was increased to 30% of construction costs. Under Governor King's leadership, State officials also prepared the advance plans that now permit New Hampshire to take advantage of Federal aid to acquire land for recreational facilities. In addition, a thorough study of forest policy was undertaken. We now pledge:

- To continue to combat the blights of water and air pollution, highway litter, roadside junkyards and unsightly billboards.
- To implement the report of the Governor's Committee on Forest Policy.
- To support the cooperative Federal-State program for the conservation of land and water.
- To provide additional picnic areas, to encourage greater recreational use of the Upper Connecticut River, and to promote continued public access to other waters.
- To oppose Federal restrictions on poultry, eggs and turkey production, and to intensify efforts to reduce railroad rates on grains used in our poultry and dairy industries.
- To oppose the construction of the multi-purpose Dam at Livermore Falls as proposed by the United States Army Corps of Engineers and instead support the report of the Livermore Falls Dam Study Committee for the construction of a series of small dams on the tributaries of the Pemigewasset.

Civil Rights

The Democratic Administration in Washington, with the forceful assistance of our own Senator Tom McIntyre, has forged ahead to enact legislation to protect the rights of minority and disadvantaged groups within our society by the Civil Rights Act of 1964. Local cooperation and compliance are initial steps for the attainment of the ends of this legislation. We therefore pledge:

- To support without reservation the Civil Rights Act of 1964 and to promote an atmosphere within our State which will encourage all our citizens to comply with the provisions of the Act and further the objectives sought thereby.

Responsible Citizenship

During the past few years, our State and Nation, under the Democratic Party, have moved ever closer to the goals and ideals of what President Lyndon B. Johnson calls the "Great Society". Americans of all parties, of all sections of our Nation, of all classes of life, have contributed to our national greatness. But along with the ever-growing greatness of our Nation, small groups of fanatics, preaching the doctrines of hatred, bigotry, and unreason, have leveled a direct attack on the basic foundations of American Democracy. We therefore pledge: — Our full opposition to all those who would seek to undermine our American way of life, including, but not limited to, the Communist Party, and the American Nazi Party; the John Birch Society and the Ku Klux Klan.
